NEW BUSINESS

OLD BUSINESS

Greenleaf Recycling

- A citizen stopped in named Stanley
- Stanley stated Greenleaf Recycling is entering State Land and removing trees
- Stanley mentioned a collection of signatures that have been filed into Greenleaf Recycling's file
- Stanley was reminded by the board that a Public Hearing was held a month before the vote
- The board stated as long as there are no changes to the approval that Greenleaf has been permitted to use property as such
- The property owner has been working with the state parks land management
- Stanley stated he has been monitoring the property changes, and garbage has collected on the NE corner, considering this an illegal landfill
- The board reminded Stanley that the PBA gave Greenleaf Recycling approval for the project and that Greenleaf Recycling has followed Code Enforcement Policies
- Stanley stated that this company is known for leaving garbage behind on their past properties
- The board told Stanley that such concerns should be reported to Code Enforcement and the DEC

PBA Budget

- Dave stated that at the Town Board meeting he presented that the PBA has already made significant adjustments to their budget
- The board suggested a possible budget workshop in early 2019
